

Ordination
to the Order of Bishops of
Anne Primavesi

6 February 2004

To all the faithful throughout the world, greetings.

By these presents we hereby declare that, through the calling of almighty God, aka, the Ground of Being, the big Is, the Totally Unreal, the final proof of whose omnipotence is that he does not need to exist in order to save us, we the undersigned
the Right Reverend John Shelby Spong, prime bishop of the church in exile, the Right Reverend Arthur J. Dewey, Metropolitan of the Para Catholic Church of Storrow Drive, and the Right Reverend Richard Holloway sometime Primate of the Celtic Fringe and the Pebbled Shore, do hereby declare that we have this day ordained and admitted into the Order of Bishops our beloved sister in the Lord, the Right Reverend

Anne Primavesi

President of the Pontifical Academy for the Promotion of the Ministry of Women in God's Holy Catholic Church, Archpriest of the Order of the protectors of the planet, High Poet of Sacred Gaia, in which she lives and moves and has her being and do hereby admit her to all the rights, privileges and responsibilities of the said order. given under our seal, this sixth day of February in the year two thousand and four in the metropolitan city of New York within the high cathedral of the Marriott Hotel.
